

This "Do Not Call" list is one of the best things. Telemarketers calls not only waste my time as well as distrube my peaceful time while at home. I should have the right not to be bothered by these constant annoying phone calls. I have other means of looking for services that I may need when I need them.